

RULES FOR SPIDER HILL ACTORS 2021

1. Actors must stay in character at all times (even while walking to the bathroom). Even if it is your family, there may be another group that doesn't know you and it will ruin the scare for them.
2. Please do not rip, tear, pull props off walls or attractions. They are there for a reason and these props cost a lot of money.
3. Tickets stop selling at 11:00pm. That does NOT mean we are closed. Anyone still possessing a ticket will be taken through the attractions. Depending on how busy we are, we may not close until after midnight. Please plan your transportation accordingly. If you have a curfew, please notify the person signing you in at the beginning of the night. Make sure you sign out when you leave.
4. You are allowed breaks. A staff member will bring you snacks during the evening. Do not leave your scare until a staff member is notified. Leaving a scare unattended will ruin the scare for the guests. An empty scare is no scare at all.
5. If you are in an area with more than one actor, Work as a team and you will have fun the entire night.
6. Please do not touch our guests. Try to keep an arm's length between you and the patron. Do not touch, even if it's your girlfriend, mom, etc.
7. If you encounter an angry or upset customer, please follow the steps given to you by your trail head.
8. Actors are NOT allowed in the boo barn. This is a family friendly zone.
9. The park closes to all patrons one hour after Spider Hill closes for the night. Make sure to sign out, turn in costumes, and get your meal directly following your shift.

Actors need to wear dark clothing. PLEASE wear layers for cold nights!!!!

At the end of the night we will provide a meal for you. Please make sure you check out and turn in your costumes. You will receive a food ticket if you have worked the entire night and have checked in/out.
